APOLOGY IS MADE

Expresses Regret for Language in Letter Written to Bishop Randolph.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Norfolk, Va., April 11.—It now seems that the differences between Rector Steinmetz, of Christ Church, and Bishop A. M. Randolph will be smoothed over, although it is not expected that the bishop will rescind his order regarding the intoning of the services at that church. Urged by leaders of his congregation and close friends, Steinmetz has written a second letter to Bishop Randolph, in which he apolo-gizes for and withdraws his language of the first letter, made under the heat of passion. He admits the charges hurled at the bishop were undeserved. The feeling here is that Bishop Randolph will accept the apology, thus ending the recent trouble.
